A 2-Day Workshop, March 1 - 2, 2008

We are very excited to host world-renowned Master Li Jun Feng for the second year at the Emerald Feng Shui Institute for a two-day exploration of Sheng Zhen Wuji Yuan Gong. Master Li is traveling and teaching in many different countries worldwide. We are very privileged to have him come to Seattle. His first workshop in Seattle last spring was a huge success. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from the Master in person. 'Being in the presence of Master Li you literally feel the flowing and pulsating of the chi energy in your body. You know you are in the presence of this huge open and loving heart and you simply can't help to be drawn into the expansiveness of his being'. (Student's comment).

About Sheng Zhen Wuji Yuan Gong: Sheng Zhen Wuji Yuan Gong is the original most basic form of qigong, it is timeless, it is old and it is new. It is old because the truth expressed in its philosophy always existed. It is new because it is expressed and imparted in a new way. Sheng Zhen Qigong is unique in because it taps into the energy of the heart. When your heart opens a lot is possible, it opens the door to a genuine healing process. You are invited to join in exploring your body in its entirety, becoming a friend of your body and ultimately love it. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to create health and happiness with your daily practice. The following movements will be covered in the workshop: Return To Spring and Zhontian Yiqi.
